SENTENCE ON CONTEMPTCOUNT IS SUSPENDED

William J. Gillian, Chambersburg undertaker, was found guilty of contempt of court when he appeared before the Adams County Court this morning because of an arraignment in his support order. He was scheduled to appear last Saturday and a process for his arrest was issued at that time. He was taken into custody by the sheriff Friday afternoon and spent the night in the Adams County jail.

Sentence was suspended on him on condition he pay arrears immediately. He was warned by the court that as soon as he misses payments he will go to jail. Gillian told the court his failure to appear last week was due to the fact that he did not understand the notice that had been given by the Franklin County sheriff. The court told him he should have had sufficient experience by now with the court to be able to understand such notices and that, "if we had as much trouble with the rest on support orders as we do with you the sheriff would need 25 deputies just to serve the papers."

Dislikes Publicity

Gillian complained of newspaper publicity in connection with his appearances in court here and said it was hurting his business.

The court said it could not and would not direct what is published in newspapers but that Gillian, if he behaved himself and paid his order properly, would not need worry about newspaper publicity.

The court handed down an opinion in the action of divorce brought by Dorothy Weikert Feaster, Fairfield R. 1, against Elvin Feaster Jr., R. 4, directing that the record be returned to the master to take additional testimony within the next 30 days.

Most Nations At London Talks Favor Suez Canal Users' Plan

By CARL HARTMAN

LONDON (AP)—A majority of the nations attending the second London Suez conference—at least 11 of the 18—were lined up today back of a tempered Suez Canal Users' Assn. plan. Some other countries at the conference that ended last night indicated they also probably would join the new international agency to seek a solution to Egypt's two-month-old nationalization of the waterway.

Organizers hoped to get SCUA functioning within 10 days, perhaps with all 18 countries as members.

Some Disappointed But the outcome was a disappointment to France and Britain, who plugged for a strong association to take over from Egypt the task of running members' ships through the 103-mile canal.

Apparently viewing the outcome as too favorable to Egypt, French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau surprised the conference by withholding immediate agreement.

As it evolved from the three-day second Suez conference, SCUA has no power to take any drastic action against Egypt.

"A Good Conference" France, Britain and the United States sponsored the original association idea.

Most Nations At London Talks Favor Suez Canal Users' Plan

By CARL HARTMAN

LONDON (AP)—A majority of the nations attending the second London Suez conference—at least 11 of the 18—were lined up today back of a tempered Suez Canal Users' Assn. plan. Some other countries at the conference that ended last night indicated they also probably would join the new international agency to seek a solution to Egypt's two-month-old nationalization of the waterway.

Organizers hoped to get SCUA functioning within 10 days, perhaps with all 18 countries as members.

Some Disappointed But the outcome was a disappointment to France and Britain, who plugged for a strong association to take over from Egypt the task of running members' ships through the 103-mile canal.

Apparently viewing the outcome as too favorable to Egypt, French Foreign Minister Christian Pineau surprised the conference by withholding immediate agreement.

As it evolved from the three-day second Suez conference, SCUA has no power to take any drastic action against Egypt.

"A Good Conference" France, Britain and the United States sponsored the original association idea.

Secretary of State Dulles, author of the association plan, flew homeward to report to President Eisenhower. Before leaving he told reporters here:

"It was a good conference. It fulfilled good work and there was a cooperative spirit. I think the results are solid as we moved forward to the next stage. I am very satisfied with the outcome."

Diplomats here saw a good chance that Egypt's President Nasser might accept SCUA, as finally constituted. He rejected the original users' association scheme as tantamount to a declaration of war. Egypt maintains it can operate the canal alone and that any attempt by other nations to step in would infringe on its sovereignty.

To Meet October 1

SCUA's governing body will be composed of one delegate from each country joining it. It is to meet in London Oct. 1.

These nations agreed to join SCUA: The United States, Britain, Italy, Australia, New Zealand, Portugal, West Germany, the Netherlands, Turkey, Spain and Norway.

Swedish and Danish delegates indicated their countries probably would join, too. Japan, Iran, Ethiopia and Pakistan did not commit themselves.

2 SAY SCHOOL OFFER IS HIGH

The Adams County Court was told this morning that $25,000 for the purchase of the Arendtsville Vocational School is a higher sum than could be obtained at a public sale. Lloyd W. Garretson, president of the Arendtsville School Board, and Charles Bushey, secretary, told of the offer and the willingness of the school board to sell.

There was no opposition to the sale and the court will hand down its decision in the near future.

Hartman estimated the value of the building and lots at $24,750 and Ridinger placed the value at $24,320.

Zettle Warns About Frosted Sorghum

Adams County farmers who are growing sorghum or sudan grass were warned that both are dangerous to cattle after being hit by frost.

County Farm Agent Frank Zettle said that many farmers grow sorghum with soybeans and should be careful not to let cattle eat frosted sorghum or sudan grass either as pasture or in the form of hay. The frost causes the development of prussic acid, Zettle said, and that can be deadly to livestock.

It can safely be used in the form of ensilage after a month, Zettle added. The ensilage juices render the frosted grass and sorghum safe after a 30-day period, he explained.

YANKEE PILOT GOES TO SUEZ TO AVOID WAR

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"I think it's smart for Americans to go. Maybe they can keep the shooting from starting."

That's the way Capt. Walter A. Equils, 45, a veteran U.S. ship captain and pilot, explains his taking a job with the Egyptian government as a Suez Canal pilot. Capt. Equils, of nearby New Kensington, Pa., said he was notified by the State Department yesterday that his application for a passport to Egypt had been approved.

Okay Seven Passports
The State Department said it approved passports for seven Americans to go to Egypt and take jobs as Suez Canal pilots. No names were given.

Capt. Equils said he applied to the Egyptian consulate some time ago and was told last week he would be hired and his expenses paid.

"The Egyptians want Americans there as pilots in the Suez Canal," Equils said. "They don't want Russians." He plans to leave from New York by plane Monday for Cairo.

Served In War

"I feel I am an American citizen and have the right to go anywhere any other American citizen goes," Equils said when told the State Department would warn all the pilots of uncertain employment and risk in the Suez Canal area. "My job is my problem and not the State Department's. To prevent Americans from taking these Suez jobs would be inviting the Russians to go there."

He served as skipper of cargo and troop-carrying vessels during World War II, said he is familiar with the Mediterranean and the canal and has made "20 or more trips" through the waterway.

found a truck, believed to be owned by Baltzley, crosswise in the road, blocking the entrance to the mine. Six men were standing around the truck.

Refused To Move Truck
The sheriff asked Baltzley to remove his vehicle. According to the sheriff, he refused.

The sheriff told the men that they had every right to strike, but that they had no right to block a public highway.

When no one moved the truck, the sheriff and deputies pushed the vehicle off the highway.

Couldn't Pay Fine
While the men had moved enough to permit the truck to be pushed off the highway, the sheriff and his deputies said they found the striking crew standing around the highway when the sheriff's force sought to drive on toward the mining plant.

When Baltzley refused to move out of the path of the sheriff's car, the sheriff arrested him and took him before Justice Snyder for arraignment.

As the sheriff and deputies left with Baltzley, state police arrived. The sheriff and Baltzley were at Snyder's office when the state police also arrived there, with Orner, whom they alleged had made a disturbance at the scene. Orner was a few dollars short of being able to pay his $16.50 fine and costs and went along with Baltzley to jail. Several hours later the fine and costs were paid and he was released.

Presented as a report of the community's activities, the pageant opened with an Indian scene. Then the early settlers were shown, in the Marsh Creek Settlement that preceded Gettysburg.

A scene showing the difficulties Zachary Butcher, Penn's surveyor, had with the settlers in this area in 1771 amused the spectators.

Present Typical Dances
Another scene that brought chuckles was the depiction of Robert Horner's school in which the youngsters had a "field day" when Horner left the room to escort Thaddeus Stevens from the school.

Gettysburg's square in the early days, with all its varied activities, including stores in operation, its market and the "customers" in costume brought recollections to many.

The current rock and roll seemed not much more strenuous than the "Charleston," when that dance was presented as one of the many typical dances scattered through the pageant.

Several songs were presented during portions of the pageant including "Tenting Ton'ht on the

"THERE IS A RECOURSE"

What can we do when life seems dreary . . . and everything somehow goes wrong . . . how can we gain the hope we're needing . . . and golden faith to make us strong . . . what can we do to ease the heart-aches . . . that tend to slowly pull us down . . . how can we fashion smiles of glad-ness . . . to drive away each sullen frown . . . what can we do when we're bewildered . . . knowing not when or where to turn . . . is there a someone or a something . . . to com-fort all of us who yearn . . . what can we do when friends forsake us . . . is there a haven from the storm . . . where we can find a peaceful moment . . . filled with a love, tender and warm . . . God is the someone we can turn to . . . He will show us the happy way . . . prayer is the some-thing that will help us . . . joy can be found by those who pray.

RESUME SEARCH FOR GASTALL; FEAR HE'S DEAD

BALTIMORE (AP)—A submerged object struck by a fishing boat spurred the search today for Tommy Gastall and the small airplane which apparently carried him to his death Thursday evening.

Recovery yesterday of a red plastic seat cushion, definitely identified as belonging to the single-engine plane the 23-year-old major league catcher was flying, strengthened the belief that he crashed and perished.

But that was the only positive clue turned up in more than 30 hours of continuous search by Coast Guard vessels, airplanes, divers and volunteers.

Resumed At Dawn
The hunt was called off last mid-night and resumed at daybreak today.

The former Boston University three-sport star, who signed with the Baltimore Orioles in 1955 for a reported $40,000 bonus, was last seen Thursday about 6 p.m. when he took off from Easton, Md., about 40 air miles south and east across Chesapeake Bay.

At 6:21 p.m. he radioed the control tower at Baltimore's Harbor Field that he was in trouble and "heading for the water." He wasn't able to give his position.

Gastall, a promising big league catcher who took up flying several months ago, had a student license. He had only 20 hours of solo time and was flying a single en-gine plane which he bought three months ago.

Showers were indicated for some areas but generally pleasant weather was the outlook for most of the nation today—the end of the summer season and the start of autumn.

TO STREAMLINE INFANTRY UNIT

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP)—Army Secretary Wilber Brucker says it is "an open secret" that the Army is considering streamlining an in-fantry division along the lines of the 101st Airborne Division.

He made the statement at a news conference here yesterday after ceremonies reactivating the 101st as a "lean and mean divi-sion, stripped of nonessentials" and armed with atomic weapons.

Brucker did not indicate to what size an infantry division might be reduced. The streamlined 101st has about 11,500 men, compared to 17,300 in a standard airborne division.

The division's commanding offi-cers say it "marks the creation of a revolutionary fighting ma-chine which may be the prototype for army divisions of the future— all purpose units, completely air-transportable, which can fly at a moment's notice to trouble spots anywhere in the world."

TEXAS AIMS TO PUT NAACP OUT OF BUSINESS

By GARTH JONES

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The state at-torney general asked and got yes-terday a court order aimed at putting the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People out of business in Texas.

Dist. Judge Otis T. Dunagan of Smith County ordered the NAACP to stop all operations in Texas, to file no more school integration suits, and to collect no more mon-ey until a hearing Sept. 28 in Tyler, Tex.

"We allege that the NAACP has exceeded the bounds of propriety and law and have asked that they not be allowed to operate in this state," Atty. Gen. John Ben Shep-pard said in a statement.

Urges Patience
"I know many Texans will be stunned by the import of our evi-dence. I urge a calm and patient attitude," he said.

Gov. Allan Shivers, who called out the Texas Rangers to stop re-cient racial disturbances at Mans-field High School, had no com-ment.

Dr. H. Boyd Hall, state NAACP president, said the attorney gen-eral's move showed that Negroes in Texas were entering an era of persecution. Hall said he had an-ticipated the ban.

Surprise Action
W. J. Durham, attorney for the Texas State Conference of Branches (NAACP), said that group "is an association of indi-viduals in Texas and not a cor-poration. The national association has no authority to keep it alive or break it up."

The temporary restraining order was issued without previous no-tice to the defendants, which in-cluded all state officials of the NAACP and 122 branches in the state.

The surprise court action came after investigators from the at-torney general's office spent several days looking over NAACP records throughout Texas and at national headquarters in New York.

Not Denying Rights
One of the charges was that the NAACP "is in truth and in fact a profit-making organization, con-trary to its avowed purposes and representation."

The state's petition said that "for over 100 years the white and colored races in said state have

STEVENSON TO SPEAK TODAY IN FARM BELT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Adlai Stevenson makes a major Democratic bid for the farm vote today at Newton, Iowa — one day after an appearance there by President Eisenhower.

Stevenson's flight to Iowa to address the National Field Days and plowing matches turned the affair into a shuttle operation of presidential candidates, since Eisenhower returned to Washington only last night.

Stevenson reportedly has drafted a detailed outline of his farm program for delivery this after-noon to the farm-belt audience. He also was said to be ready to hit hard at Eisenhower administration agricultural policies.

Talked To Meany
Eisenhower, in informal re-marks to some 75,000 persons there yesterday, asked them to withhold judgment on his own farm program until his Tuesday night speech at Peoria, Ill. This is billed as the major farm speech of the Eisenhower program.

In Washington yesterday, Ste-venston talked labor matters with George Meany, head of the giant 15-million member AFL-CIO.

Meany told newsmen later that Stevenson "looks very confident." Vice President Nixon, well into a 32-state barnstorming tour of his own, told a Sioux City, Iowa, audience today in prepared re-marks that what he called "ex-pedient politicians" should not be given control of the country.

Harsh Words From Estes
Nixon said Eisenhower has proved his ability to lead the na-tion in peace and war and now "offers our best hope of remain-ing out of future conflicts."

Nixon's opposite number, Sen. Estes Kefauver, had harsh words for Nixon in Pendleton, Ore., yes-terday and renewed a charge against Eisenhower that had drawn Nixon's fire.

Kefauver repeated a charge that Eisenhower had worked against the interests of the "little people," which earlier brought from Nixon a demand that Kefauver apologize.

"Despicable Action"
Kefauver went on to call Nixon "the darling of every reactionary in the Republican party." Voters should ask themselves, Kefauver said, what would happen to the country if Nixon succeeded to the presidency.

In Washington, Rep. Devereux (R-Md.) charged yesterday that Stevenson has "attempted to in-volve His Holiness Pope Pius XII in American politics, a most de-spicable action."

Stevenson said Thursday that the Pope was among world lead-ers who have made "similar propo-sals" to his own in suggesting that the United States take the lead in bringing about an end to hydrogen bomb testing.

DIES IN COLLISION
EGG HARBOR CITY, N. J. (AP)—Rudolph Berbakov of Philadelphia died last night as his car slammed into the rear of a dump truck.

An autopsy on the victim's body was to be performed today to de-termine if he died of a heart at-tack or from crash injuries.

lived together peacefully and in harmony without strife or litiga-tion and that, were it not for the activities of the defendants (the NAACP), they would now and in the future continue to do so. . . .

The suit also pointed out the state's action did not attempt to deny the rights of "Negroes or others to belong to any organiza-tion fully complying with the con-stitution and law of the state of Texas."

Farmers own 30 per cent of U.S. forest lands.

On The U.S. Political Front

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adlai Ste-venston flew today to the heart of the farm belt to start an 11-state campaign tour with a major speech at the National Field Days at Newton, Iowa.

The Democratic presidential nominee will make a bid for the farm vote before somewhat the same big audience that heard an informal talk yesterday by his Republican opponent, President Eisenhower.

Only a small group of close fol-lowers saw Stevenson take off from National Airport at 8:38 a.m. EDT on a four-hour flight to Des Moines.

The importance Stevenson is placing on wooing the farmers' vote is shown in the campaign route he will follow the next eight days.

Travels 6,790 Miles
The tour will take him 6,790 miles into such agricultural states as Kansas, Missouri, Indiana, Wis-consin and Minnesota, in addition to Iowa.

From Newton he is scheduled to fly on today to Denver, Colo., for another major address there tonight. The theme of that talk was not announced in advance.

The current Stevenson tour also will take him into Louisiana, Ar-kansas, Oklahoma and Florida. The trip will conclude in Minne-apolis a week from tonight. Ste-venston then will take two days off for further speech writing and conferences, either in Chicago or in Washington, and leave Oct. 2 on another foray for votes.

That next tour may be to the East and into some of the New England states.

"Miss America" Of '56 Weds Tonight

DENVER (AP)—Sharon Kay Rit-chie, who as an 18-year-old col-lege student became Miss Amer-ica of 1956, will marry Don Cherry 32, singer and amateur golfer to-night.

Miss Ritchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ritchie of Grand Island, Neb., will wear the gown in which she crowned her suc-cessor, Marian Ann McKnight of Manning, S.C., earlier this month. The former Colorado Women's College student also will wear her own Miss America crown.

Now 19, Miss Ritchie met Cher-ry, one of the country's leading amateur golfers, while making a personal appearance in his home town, Wichita Falls, Tex.

Trustees' President Resigns At Lehigh

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—Eugene Grace, board chairman of the Bethlehem Steel Co., has resigned as president of the board of trustees of Lehigh University. It was announced today. He had been a trustee 44 years.

The 80-year-old industrialist cited "the pressure of steel expan-sion activities," a university an-nouncement said.

A successor was not named. The university said the board voted to operate under the direction of the chairman of the executive committee.

Grace was graduated from Le-high in 1899 with a degree in electrical engineering. He was class valedictorian.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Eli N. Her-shey, 69, Harrisburg, one of the founders of the Hershey Cream-ery Co., died last night while bow-ling with a Rotary Club team.

Interns at Harrisburg Hospital attributed death to a heart attack. He was a native of Florin, Lan-caster County.

GAVE AID TO 14,707 MAIMED

An all-time high of 14,707 phys-ically handicapped Commonwealth residents were provided with services by the Bureau of Vocational Re-habilitation during the past fiscal year, indicating the growing de-mand and need for aid to the dis-abled, it was reported today.

The number is 23.2 per cent more than the previous high established in 1955 when 11,934 persons were served, according to John R. Tor-quato, secretary of labor and in-dustry and executive officer of the bureau's board.

"These services are part of the Federal-State rehabilitation program and include diagnosis, counseling and guidance, medical services, prosthetic appliances, training and miscellaneous services and the ulti-mate placement in gainful employ-ment."

During the 12-month period 4,200 of the 14,707 who received services completed their rehabilita-tion program and the cases were closed as "satisfactorily rehabili-tated," or placement in jobs. Tor-quato explained that a case is closed when a disabled person is placed in a job for which he was prepared and for which he was considered most capable of fulfilling. Another 1,377 cases were closed be-cause of death, personal factors, aggravation of the disability or some other similar reason.

Jordon J. Gordon, supervisor of the bureau's Harrisburg District Office, said 1,213 of the 14,707 per-sons who were provided services were from his district, which in-cludes Adams, Cumberland, Dauphin, Franklin, Juniata, Lancaster, Mifflin, Perry and York Counties.

Postponed Fair Events Re-scheduled

READING (AP)—Two major events of the Reading Fair, postponed because of rain, are being held this weekend. This time the weather promises to be clear, if rather chilly.

Thirty girls from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Mary-land are competing for the title of Miss Reading Fair of 1956 and a $1,000 first prize that goes with it. The winner will be chosen in an open air stage show tonight at the fairgrounds two miles north of the city. The judging was originally scheduled for last Saturday night.

Also delayed for a week, the big car races will be run at the fair-grounds tomorrow afternoon.

Peaches, which are low in cal-ories, are a good source of vita-mins A and C.

Today's Talk

SPILLED MILK

Ever since I can remember I have heard that phrase about "spilled milk" meaning that if you had made a mistake that was unavoidable, it was "spilled milk" and you couldn't save anything by bemoaning your lot. The milk would be gone for only the cat to lap up. Mistakes are like that. After they have been made it's best to learn from them and forget the resultant loss.

We all make mistakes, but old Josh Billings once remarked that you should not make the same one "twice." Benjamin Franklin kept a diary, noting each day his gains and failures, and much that went into his wise paragraphs came from what he had learned from himself. Famous became the "Poor Richard Sayings."

It is both useless and mentally harmful for any of us to surrender to regrets and mistakes made. Like the spilled milk, they are bound in a short time to evaporate from the memory like the milk that is spilled and somehow suddenly forgotten.

Think constructively and the petty, bothersome experiences will take up small space in your mind and daily thinking. Many years ago there was a slang phrase that people used. It was "Rise above it!" Well, if more of us should rise above the things that eat into happiness, and bring on worries, we would be better human beings.

I have carried in my mind for years a phrase that the late Cyrus Curtis, founder of the Ladies' Home Journal, gave to a companion. He said: "Yesterday ended last night." It's so simple for all of us to forget the unpleasant in life and the irritating things, but we can make ourselves so happy if we only would!

Milk spilled is of no value. You can make up for the loss, however, by purchasing more milk! And it can be just as good milk as that lost. So, with the mistakes and other losses that are sure to keep coming to us all, we can keep covering up our losses with gains that smother them!

AUTUMN

The summertime has ended and the fall has just begun. And the roses in the garden think their year's work fully done. The marigolds are swaying like old ladies in their chairs. And smiling at the children, who think youth will long be theirs.

They call this the gay-time, autumn, but I call it resting time.

When the zinnias' bloom is fading and the roses cease to climb: When there's beauty all about us bits of scarlet, bronze and gold.

Age has started in to wither and we know they're growing old.

Winter, springtime and the summer came and laughed as they went by. Brought the hyacinths and tulips and the heat of mid-July.

Now the beauty of the autumn for awhile is ours to share. And when that has grayed and faded there'll be snow flakes in the air.

BOARD HEARS CLEMENCY PLEA OF 3 KILLERS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The State Pardons Board had before it Friday for consideration what might be the last clemency plea of three men who have spent almost a third of their lives in the shadow of the electric chair.

Four attorneys spent almost four hours before the board on Thursday presenting their reasons sometimes in impassioned voices — why David Darcy, Harry Zeitz and Harold Foster should not be executed Oct. 1 as scheduled.

The Philadelphia trio was condemned to death in 1948 for the slaying of a bystander during a holdup of a Feasterville tavern three days before Christmas, 1947. Since that time, the three convicted killers have faced an end in the death chair.

Darcy is now 30, as is Foster. Zeitz is 25.

Have 11 Days
They will die in 11 days unless the Pardons Board recommends clemency and Gov. Leader accepts the recommendation in which case they would be sentenced to life imprisonment.

Their counsel argued Thursday that the counts actually favored a new trial but they were unable to recommend it because of the letter of the law.

"The appellate court virtually suggest to Darcy to avail himself of the pardoning power of the governor of Pennsylvania," said Morton Witkin, Philadelphia counsel for Darcy.

Finds Death Appeal
During much of the time in the last few years while the Darcy appeal was carried in the State Supreme Court and turned down three times; to the U.S. Supreme Court and rejected five times and to the U.S. Court of Appeals and District Court, Darcy was represented by Charles J. Margiotti.

STATE EXPANDS WATER PROGRAM

COUDERSPORT, Pa. (AP) — The State Agriculture Department has expanded its water conservation program to three central Pennsylvania streams where tests already are being made to determine needs.

The newly included streams in the program are Corey Creek, Tioga County; Bald eagle Creek, Centre County, and Bixler Run, Perry County.

Deputy Agriculture Secretary, L. H. Dull announced the extension Thursday at the opening session of the 9th annual Soil Conservation Conference.

Bull described it as a "long range project" from which he said the department hopes to discover what effects soil conservation practices have on stream flow and silt load and how soon improvement can be expected.

Off-Side Penalty Costly To Warriors Who Battle Shippensburg To 0-0 Tie

An improved Gettysburg High School band of gridders, rising to great defensive play, held Shippensburg High School to a 0-0 tie at Shippensburg Friday night. It was the second consecutive year these teams tied, having played to a 13-13 stalemate a year ago here.

Coch Howard Shoemaker's Warriors apparently scored early in the second quarter but the play was called back when a Warrior line-man was detected offside.

Long kicked off for the home team to Ken Keefe on the Gettysburg 18 with Keefe returning the ball to his own 45. On three plays the Warriors were able to gain but four yards and Ralph Heffner punted to Tom Reed on the Shippensburg 20 and Reed returned to his own 31.

Ocker, Reed and Nye took turns lugging the leather but they gained but five. Reed punted to Ken Mummert on the Warriors' 30 and Mummert raced back to the Shippensburg 40. Keefe, on a dive play, went for ten but the play was called back and Gettysburg penalized five for offside. Three more plays picked up little yardage and Heffner punted to Reed on the Shippensburg 16.

Nelson Recovers
Reed, who was the best ground gainer of the night, took a pitchout and legged it around left end for 20 and a first down, but two plays later Michaels fumbled and Bob Nelson recovered for the Warriors on the Shippensburg 34.

Ken Keefe plunged through right guard for five and Dick Pyle passed to John Wheeler for six more for a first down on the 24. George Mitchell went through left tackle for six and Keefe added six more around left end for a first down on the 12 at the end of the first quarter.

Rex Baltzley drove over right guard for three, followed by Keefe's three-yard run around right end to open the second period. Keefe moved the ball to the three by skirting left end.

"Score" Nullified
With a first down and three yards to go for their first touchdown of the year, the Warriors bogged down. On the first play an offside penalty cost Gettysburg five. Pyle's pass intended for Ken Keefe was knocked down by Reed. Keefe took a pitchout from Pyle and raced around right end to the one. Pyle sneaked for a half-yard and the Warriors were penalized again for offside after Baltzley had apparently plunged over for the six-point. On the final play of the series Gettysburg fumbled and Shippensburg took over on its own 11.

The Greyhounds drove down the field to the Gettysburg 17 when the attack petered out and the Warriors took over on their own 18.

Hounds Block Kick
In the second half Gettysburg was in trouble when Heffner's punt was blocked and recovered by Coy on the Warrior 10. Reed carried to the five around left end, and on the next play fumbled on the 2 where Gettysburg recovered.

Early in the final quarter the Warrior goal was threatened again when a personal foul penalty took the ball to the Gettysburg 4. On the first play Reed fumbled and Ken Keefe recovered on his own 3 to stall the final Greyhound threat.

Outstanding Performers
The entire Gettysburg team played an improved brand of ball but special mention must go to Don Baker, who patrolled left end on the defense and did a fine job of it; Bob Hess, the Warrior center, who again

PUERTO RICAN BEATS CHESTNUT

DETROIT (AP)—After hooking his way to victory over Ike Chestnut last night, Puerto Rican gamecock Miguel Berrios was ready today for the best in the featherweight division.

Jimmy DeAngelo, pilot of the 5.3 warrior, said: "We are ready to fight any featherweight who ranks above us. We are ready and willing to meet the best in the featherweight division."

Berrios is rated sixth among the 126-pounders. The split decision victory over ninth-ranked Chestnut in a nationally televised NBC, 10-rounder was his 19th win in 25 starts.

"Of course, we would like to meet champion Sandy Saddler," DeAngelo said, "but we are biding our time and are willing enough to wait for our shot at the title."

The bout was scored under a "must five" system being tested by the Michigan boxing commission. Judge Jack Aspery gave Berrios the nod, 46-43. Judge Al Goodman voted 48-40 in favor of the Puerto Rican. Referee Johnny Weber, who was roundly booed, gave the fight to Chestnut, 45-44. The Associated Press had Berrios in front 49-39.

There were no knockdowns, although both fighters were rocked as the pace quickened after the fifth round.

ULCA TRIUMPHS OVER UTAH TO OPEN WEEKEND

By ED CORRIGAN
The Associated Press

The days of the big powers chewing up the little fellows in early season warmups long have since departed.

So today, the official opening of the 1956 college football season, finds some games scheduled that could have a definite bearing on the final rankings at the end of the campaign.

On tap are, for example, Notre Dame-Southern Methodist, Georgia Tech-Kentucky, Maryland-Syracuse, North Carolina-North Carolina State, Stanford-Washington State and Southern California State. UCLA got the big weekend accolade by whipping Utah 13-7 Friday night.

60,000 To See ND

A crowd of 60,000 is expected in the Cotton Bowl to see if Coach Terry Brennan of Notre Dame has the answer to the eight defeated regulars from last season. Brennan intends to two-plateau his club in an effort to battle the heat. He has Paul Hornung back at quarterback, and the word goes, some adequate replacements for the graduates. The game will start at 9 p.m., EST, and will be broadcast nationally by Mutual.

Battle - hardened, bowl-tested Georgia Tech, rated No. 4 behind Notre Dame in The Associated Press' pre-season poll, will be favored over Kentucky in the TV game of the day, 2:30 p.m. EST. NBC. The Ramblin' Wrecks will field almost the same team that edged Pitt in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day.

Maryland will go into the Syracuse game with a big reputation, a new coach and without quarterback Frank Tamburello, who is headed for the armed services. Thirty-three-year-old Tommy Mont is the new pilot, succeeding Jim Tatum, who led the Terps to three undefeated seasons in the last five years.

N. C. State Favored

Tatum, for his part, has returned to his alma mater, North Carolina and who should he draw for his first opponent but arch-rival North Carolina State. Tatum has his work cut out for him right from the start for State is favored. But only a fool would bet against a tatum-coached team.

In the Pacific Coast Conference, where you can't tell the players until the latest suspensions are meted out, Stanford, led by sharpshooter Steve Brodie who connected with 76 passes last year, is the choice over Washington State in the night game.

Southern Cal, whose seniors are permitted to play only five games because of the subsidization hula-balo, has the edge over Texas at Austin, mainly because the Trojans have decided to play tailback Jon Arnett. It should be a good aerial battle with Walt Fonden heaving for the Longhorns.

Most of the major eastern and midwestern teams, including the Ivy League and Big Ten, won't swing into action until next week.

Delone Passes 79 Yards In Last Seven Seconds To Beat Chambersburg High 20 To 13

The combination of sophomore Mike Conrad, filling in for the injured Joe Poist at right end, and the smooth faking of quarterback Larry Hockensmith gave the Delone Squires an impressive 20-13 win over the Chambersburg Trojans in the closing seven seconds of the game Friday night at Chambersburg before 5,500 fans. This was the inaugural game on the new Chambersburg gridiron.

With seven seconds remaining in the game and the score deadlocked at 13-13, little Larry Hockensmith, brilliant Squire quarterback, cut loose with a pass from his own 21-yard line which fell into the waiting arms of Mike Conrad, playing his first full varsity game. Conrad dashed down the sidelines to play dirt in a play that covered 79 yards, to give Delone Catholic their third straight win of the season and a hard fought win over the Trojans of Chambersburg.

The fans were impressed by the fine exhibition of football displayed by both teams. Both the offense and defense were at their best and statistically both teams were evenly matched.

Delone Scores First
Delone, playing their usual brand of first quarter football, took the kick-off and marched 61 yards on a sustained drive that put them into front 6-0. The hard running of Earl Mann, Richie Hemler, Pat O'Brien and John Gastley, was climaxed with a 25-yard pass from Hockensmith to Conrad which accounted for the first Delone score. The attempt for the extra point was fumbled.

Both teams fought desperately but to no avail. Chambersburg was only able to penetrate to Delone's 20-yard line. The Squires had a bad case of fumbleitis when they failed to utilize the yardage picked up by their speedy backfield. The Red and Blue team drove to the Trojans' three-yard line in the second frame but fumbled the ball. Again in the same frame they marched to the home team's 20-yard line and again lost the ball on a fumble.

In the third quarter Chambersburg took the kick-off and staged a surprise attack on the McSherry-ston crew. In ten plays the Trojans marched 58 yards to their initial tally.

Three Little Men
The three little men, Jerry Burns and Larry Haulman, versatile half-backs, and Norm Piper, a sharp quarterback, bolted their way through the Delone line on quick-opening plays that set the Squires back. The climax of the drive was Burns' crash through left guard for three yards and the first Trojan six pointer. Ed Meminger's placement was wide and the score was knotted at 6-6.

The Squires came right back four minutes later and were on the opponents' 26 yard line via an intercepted pass by Mann. Five plays later, with only 20 seconds remaining in the period, Richie Hemler plunged through the line for one yard and Delone's second touchdown. This time Charlie Doll split the uprights and Delone led 13-6.

Lancaster High Next
Midway in the final frame, Chambersburg had possession of the ball on the Delone 34 after Haulman had returned a Phil Staub punt 22 yards. Six plays later the Trojans had worked the pigskin to the visitors' 3 yard line. From there, reserve halfback Jim Tasket bolted his way over for the TD. This time Meminger converted and the score was tied again 13-13.

With about one minute left in the game Delone forced the Trojans to punt. "Bucky" Washington took the boot on his 19 and was able to advance only two yards before being downed by a host of tacklers. With seven seconds remaining Hockensmith uncorked his game winning pass to Conrad.

Next week the Squires will meet Lancaster Catholic at Lancaster in their final home game.

Overdue On Flight

Tommy Gastall, above, 23-year-old Baltimore Orioles bonus catcher, was reported overdue on a solo plane flight from Harbor Field, Baltimore, Thursday. He took off with five hours fuel in the plane. Later he radioed the tower operator at the field, who, in spite of radio interference, believed Gastall mentioned "fire" and said he was diving for the water of Chesapeake Bay. (AP Wirephoto)

FLATBUSH FINDS GOING IS TOUGH IN PITTSBURGH

By JACK HAND

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Memo to Flatbush: It isn't so easy in Pittsburgh after all.

You figured a few weeks ago your Dodgers had an easier road to the pennant than the Braves. You figured on some easy ones with those Pittsburgh youngsters, the Pirates.

In the meantime, you figured, Milwaukee would be on the road with some tough ones: no against the third-place Cincinnati Redlegs and three with St. Louis.

Well: Meet Ronnie Kline.

The Spoilers
Kline, a 24-year-old crew cut lad from nearby Calvary, Pa., joins Bob Friend as another Pittsburgh "spoiler" dedicated to making life tough for pennant contenders.

Friend beat Milwaukee Thursday afternoon, helping Brooklyn, so Kline whipped the Dodgers last night 2-1 to give the Braves a hand. As a result, Brooklyn's lead was shaved to two percentage points.

Both "spoilers" can concentrate on the Dodgers the rest of the way. The Pirates have six more games with the league leaders on the last two weekends of the season.

First Decision As Starter
Kline never had beaten Brooklyn as a starter before he decided Sal Maglie last night with the help of a two-run homer by Frank Thomas.

"That makes up for some of those losses," he said in the clubhouse. "But I hope to get even some more before it's over."

Kline will get his chance. Manager Bobby Bragan plans to pitch him at Ebbets Field next week. Friend also will get two cracks at the Dodgers.

Two Big Ones Missing
Dodger Manager Walter Alston learned just before the game Jackie Robinson and Carl Furillo were out of action. Robinson said he might have been able to play, despite an injured left hip, but was afraid he would risk being out a week if he tried. Furillo, who had injured his left elbow making a catch against Chicago last week, couldn't bend his arm enough to take a full cut at the plate. He did play part of an inning in left field for defensive purposes.

Today's Schedule
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh—Erskine (13-10) vs Law (8-15).
Philadelphia at New York—Roberts (18-16) vs Worthington (5-14).
St. Louis at Cincinnati—Dickson (13-9) vs Jeffcoat (6-2).
Chicago at Milwaukee—Jones (9-14) vs Burdette (18-10).

Yesterday's Results
Pittsburgh 2, Brooklyn 1
Milwaukee 6, Chicago 4
Cincinnati 9, St. Louis 1
New York 7, Philadelphia 3

Tomorrow's Schedule
Philadelphia at New York
Brooklyn at Pittsburgh
St. Louis at Cincinnati (2)
Chicago at Milwaukee.

Bel Air Meet To Open Wednesday

BEL AIR, Md.—Everything is in readiness for the 1956 race meeting at the local Bel Air race track which will open Wednesday, September 26, and continue through October 9.

Eight races are scheduled for each day with the first post time at 1:30 p.m.

PHILS SIGN 3RD BASEMAN
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Richard Shepler, 18-year-old third baseman from Harrisburg, was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies yesterday to a 1957 contract with the Class D Olean (N.Y.) team of the Pony League, a Philadelphia farm club.

The youngster, who throws and bats right, compiled a .480 batting average at Susquehanna High School, and recently won a Harrisburg sandlot game with a 390-foot home run.

Milwaukee Wins, Dodgers Lose As Redlegs Stay In Running In Airtight National League Race

By ED WILKS

The ASSOCIATED PRESS

Is Milwaukee finally going to make the breaks pay off? Is Pittsburgh about to knock Brooklyn out of the race, just as in 1954? Can Cincinnati still make it?

That's today's baseball quiz with the Braves within two percentage points of first place Brooklyn again and the Redlegs only three lengths back in the National League's battle for survival.

The Braves, who have blown breaks like everyone else in a race marked by missed opportunities, grabbed the brass ring and made Chicago errors pay off with a 6-4 victory over the last place Cubs last night.

Three In Row For Redlegs
Pittsburgh, the club that sprung a September trap to catch Brooklyn and open the pennant door to New York's giants in '54, was at it again, meanwhile, tripping the Dodgers 2-1 and roughing up Sal Maglie to boot.

And the Redlegs, refusing to quit, made it three in a row with a 9-1 breeze over St. Louis, leaving the race like this:

In the other NL game, the New York Giants, with Johnny Antonelli winning his 18th, defeated Philadelphia 7-3, scoring seven in the fifth against Dick Farrell in his major league debut. Willie Mays stole his 37th and 38th bases, tops in the NL since Kiki Cuyler stole 43 in 1929.

Yanks Set Record Losing
In the American, Mickey Mantle's 51st home run gave New York a league record with 183 for the season, but the pennant-winning Yankees also set a major league record by leaving 20 men on base to lose to Boston 13-7.

Cleveland took a two-game hold on second place over Chicago, defeating Detroit 5-1 while the White Sox lost to Kansas City 3-2 in a 10-inning nightcap after winning the two-night opener 4-2.

Baltimore, with Gus Triandos hitting his 20th and 21st home runs, whacked Washington 7-3.

The Braves, outfit 11 to 8, made the most of three Chicago errors, scoring the clinchers in a three-run sixth on a passed ball and a

BULLETS IN "BOWL"

The first bowl game of the 1956 football season, with all proceeds going to charity, takes place in Hershey Stadium, Saturday night, September 29, when Bucknell University will play Gettysburg College in the ninth annual Rotary Bowl. The teams have been rivals on the gridiron since 1893.

Former Purdue football players with the Cleveland Browns are End Darrel Brewster, Guard Abe Gibron and Center Don Fife.

two-run misplay by shortstop Ernie Banks. That provided a 6-0 lead, but it proved just enough as the Cubs got to Warren Spahn for Monte Irvin's 15th home run in the seventh and chased the veteran lefty with three in the eighth. Gene Conley relieved to nail Spahn's 19th victory.

Six More Against' Bucs
A two-run, seventh-inning home run by Frank Thomas, his 23rd, got the job done for the Pirates, who had jolted the Braves by a similar 2-1 score Thursday. Pittsburgh, with six more games remaining against the Braves, had beaten Maglie only four times previously in 25 decisions and the 39-year-old righthander had a personal six-game winning streak on the fire. Ron Kline, 0-3 against Brooklyn for the season and 2-9 lifetime, scattered eight hits and struck out six to win his 14th, giving up a double and Junior Gilliam's single for a run in the seventh.

Wally Post, thumping five home runs in five games socked his 33rd and 34th for four Redleg runs while Joe Nuxhall held the Cardinals to five hits. Post homered and Nuxhall hit a two-run triple in a three-run first inning against Vinegar Bend Mizell. The Redleg, with six games to go, are seven shy of the record 221 homers hit by the 1947 Giants.

Carolyn And Frances Enjoy Flower Gardens And Their Activities In 4-H Flower Club

Carolyn Louise Guise and Frances Gwendolyn Schrade, both 13 and neighbors across the Lincoln Highway about two miles east of here, are willing to admit they "giggle a bit" over their respective flower gardens and the making of floral arrangements, but the two are described by county 4-H leaders as "two of the best and most interested girls in the flower clubs."

Selected for this week's installment in the story of 4-H work of the county, the two are first-year members of the Horticultural Buds, county 4-H flower club.

Frances, an eighth grade student at St. Francis Xavier Catholic School here, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Schrade, Gettysburg R. D. Carolyn, a junior high school student at Gettysburg, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Guise, who lives across the road from the Schrades.

Each Has A Garden
The two girls are nearly inseparable, except when at school.

Each has a ten by ten foot garden, where they have grown thousands of flowers this summer, of many varieties. Each "helps out" in larger gardens of their parents. Each is interested in floral arrangement. Both have won awards for their work.

And both say swimming is their favorite hobby and as much fun as flower growing and floral arrangement.

Frances tells how she became interested in 4-H work by pointing at

ON THE HOUSE

By DAVID G. BAREUTHER
The Associated Press

How to get a better house for less money is a problem not only vexing families in the market and in need of new homes, but it's a riddle that has builders close to distraction. Building costs have been going up so steadily that it would take a lot of mumbo-jumbo to argue they have no connection with the slowing up in home building this year.

People are trying cheaper materials, remote locations, half-finished houses, smaller room sizes — every dodge they can think up — even when they know they are short changing themselves in the long run. Sometimes a man can get a contractor to put up the shell of a house — foundation, outer walls, roof, doors and windows — so he can finish the inside himself. In spite of the poor mortgage arrangements, this system often works, especially if the owner has enough capital to buy materials. A short term loan to finance the finishing, however, is usually prohibitive for the man who must economize.

"Contrary to uninformed opinion," an expert observes, "costs are not successfully lowered by decreasing living area, eliminating wanted features, or using inferior products. The builder who does this will have a house he can't sell."

This statement was made at a round table discussion of building product manufacturers recently sponsored in New York by James M. Lange of the Practical Builder, trade publication. "A low-cost house that people will want to buy" was the theme of the meeting.

Key To Small Homes
Better methods of construction were suggested by Lange as a key to inexpensive small homes that won't be cracker boxes. He listed clear-span roof trusses, non-load-bearing partitions, post and beam construction, pre-assembled structural sections, movable partition walls, and multi-purpose materials that embody structural strength, insulation and finish all in one.

All of these details are in existence today but it's going to take a lot of doing to get them generally accepted. Take post and beam framing, for example. By eliminating the many 2 by 4s that go into wall construction and substituting a post every 4 feet, this system is supposed to save as much as 20 per cent in lumber.

Why doesn't everybody use it? Competitive builders say time lost while carpenters, unfamiliar with such framing, stood around and scratched their heads would more than offset savings in lumber. Another reason is that most building codes prohibit it. Codes compiled a generation ago call for specific materials in specific place. It has taken years to persuade some 200 communities in New York State to adopt a uniform state performance code. This code opens the way for new materials by telling you how much strength must be provided and leaving it up to you to use any materials that meet the test.

Cut Building Costs
Taxes also are a handicap in getting building costs down. A laboratory test house of 1,100 square feet — three bedrooms — with a price tag of $20,850, including a modest piece of land, has been found to have $2,266 in taxes hidden in its price. Myron L. Matthews at the Dow Service Building Reports, who figured this out, included taxes on the builders' corporate profits, stockholders' and officers' individual salaries and dividends, taxes on labor and on the profits on material sales.

"In 1939-41," Matthews says, "the sales price of a house of this size included about 2 per cent to cover the miscellaneous taxes then current. The situation has grown progressively worse until today taxes add almost 18 per cent to the sales price."

And no shortcut has been found for good materials and good workmanship. Lange told the industry leaders that people are no longer buying the first house they see. Many are second home buyers, who've lived in a house and know what they want.

As to the future — "The early 1960s," says Lange, "will see the greatest era of family formation this country has ever known, as the war babies reach marriageable age. Housing will reach between 1,500,000 and two million units a year — and many of those must be low-cost houses that newlyweds can afford."

Plywood Output Hits 41 Billion

HITS 41 BILLION FT. — When you buy a panel of fir plywood this year, it may be the 41st billion square foot of that product to be sold since the first panel was produced 51 years ago. That's right — 41,000,000,000 square feet, figured in terms of an 8 x 12 panel 3/4 of an inch thick.

Fir plywood's best year by far was 1955, when 4.9 billion square feet were produced by over 113 plants in Washington, Oregon and California.

WINS 9 RIBBONS AT YORK FAIR

Loy N. Orndorff, Littlestown R. 2 dairyman, took five of his Brown Swiss herd to the York Fair and returned today with four grand champion ribbons, four first place ribbons and one second place ribbon.

in competition with 35 other Brown Swiss cattle from throughout the area.

Orndorff, who has had a Brown Swiss herd since 1941, won the awards for grand champion cow, grand champion bull, junior champion cow and junior champion bull. In addition the animals won first place for three-year-old cow, first place for four-year-old cow, first place for the junior bull and senior cow, and second for junior heifer.

All 14 animals in Orndorff's herd, maintained on a 30-acre farm, are registered Brown Swiss. Orndorff recalls that he had all kinds of cows before 1941, then went to a sale in Hanover, saw his first Brown Swiss, inquired what type of cow it was, and decided that was the type of herd he wanted.

He, his wife, his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Crouse, Gettysburg R. 1, and grandson, Wayne Crouse, Gettysburg R. 1, are among the most active members of Canton No. 5 of the Brown Swiss Association of Central Pennsylvania. Canton No. 5 embraces seven counties in the southeastern part of the state.

PLACES IN CONTEST
Truway Farms, East Berlin, placed eighth with 98.99 points in the 1955-56 Pennsylvania Official Egg Laying contest, the state Department of Agriculture announced today. Top place and a $100 prize goes to George M. Anthony, Strasstown, Berks County, for the highest quality eggs produced in the contest. All are White Leghorn hens.

To wash a washable window shade, spread it out flat and scrub a small section at a time with thick "dry" soapsuds until one side is clean.

Then rinse with a cloth wrung almost dry from clean water. Repeat on the reverse side and replace the shade at the window, drawn full length until dry.

Before you start a remodeling job, find out if you need a building permit. If you don't, you may be fined. And your finished job may have to be changed if it violates the building code.

Farmers Must File By October 1 If They Wish To Obtain The Two Cent A Gallon Gas Tax Refund

Only a few hundred of the several thousands of farmers who are eligible for refund of taxes on gasoline used in farming have filed their claims for refund. In order to receive this refund on gasoline used from January 1 through June 30, the claim must be filed before October 1. The law does not permit late claims to be paid.

Under the law passed in April 1956 any farm owner, tenant, or operator who purchased gasoline for farm use may claim a refund amounting to two cents on each gallon used during the first six months of this year. Refunds on gasoline tax paid after July 1 will be made for the yearly period July 1, 1956 to June 30, 1957.

The claim, Form 2240, is available at Internal Revenue offices and county agents' offices. Also available at these same offices is a pamphlet, "Publication No. 308," entitled "Farmer's Gas Tax Refund — June, 1956," which tells in easy-to-read language the rules and procedures to be followed in claiming refunds under the law.

Claims or inquiries must be mailed before Oct. 1 to the District Director of Internal Revenue, in Philadelphia.

Growing Calves Need Vitamins

Dark rainy weather cuts down the amount of sunshine vitamin D necessary for young dairy cattle. In bright sunny weather calves keep where they get even a little sunshine every day can usually absorb enough sunshine vitamin D to prevent rickets. Young rapidly growing animals are most susceptible to rickets because they need large amounts of vitamin D and calcium to grow strong straight bones.

First sign of rickets in calves is swelling and tenderness of the joints and a gradual raising of the loin giving the calf a hump-backed appearance. If your calves are beginning to show these symptoms, give them extra vitamin D in their ration, by feeding irradiated yeast or vitamin D oil. Twice the necessary daily amount will cure calves if they are treated early.

The production of a good crop of grain requires much effort on the part of the farmer. But his vigilance cannot stop with the harvesting and storing of the crop or insects will have a chance to do their work. Several species of beetles and moth larvae attack stored grains and seed and, if not controlled, can do a lot of damage. Examine stored grain and seeds thoroughly for any insect infestation. If insect infestation is found, fumigate promptly while temperatures are still high enough for the fumigants to be effective.

Fumigants recommended are 3 to 1 mixture of ethylene dichloride-carbon tetrachloride or the 1 to 4 mixture of carbon disulfide and carbon tetrachloride. Dosage rates are 6 gallons for each 1,000 bushels of grain in tight, well-built bins. For loosely-built bins, increase the dosage to 8 gallons. Some farmers may wish to use only carbon disulfide, at the rate of 3 gallons for each 1,000 bushels in tight bins. Be sure to follow all precautions, when using carbon disulfide. Regardless of fumigant used move all animals from the building while fumigation is going on.

A mimeograph on protecting stored grain from insects is available at our office in the Court-house.
